In cases pending before the Honorable John D. Love, the parties are exempt from complying with Local Rule CV-5(a)(9), which requires the filing party to provide the presiding judge with paper copies of all electronically-filed documents over ten (10) pages in length, including attachments.

IT IS ORDERED that courtesy paper copies shall only be provided for filings that exceed 30 pages in length (including attachments), unless specifically requested by the undersigned. The moving party shall submit to the Court all of the briefing (including responses, replies, and appendices thereto) in a single binder,¹ appropriately tabbed, upon the completion of briefing. In patent cases, the parties are further directed to refer to the Court's Discovery Order and Docket Control Order for specific requirements related to dispositive motions and Markman briefing.

So ORDERED and SIGNED this 20th day of October, 2015.

JOHN D. LOVE
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

¹ The Court encourages the parties to consolidate the courtesy copy as practically as possible. Additional binders are permitted, but need not be submitted if all briefing can fit into a single binder.
